1.0 ABOUT THESE NOTICES

Futures Matter - Northwood is a small independent special school for pupils aged 11 to 16 with social, emotional and mental health needs and autism. All our pupils have an education, health and care (EHC) plan. This means we hold a lot of personal information, and a lot of it is sensitive. We want everyone to know what we hold, why we hold it, who sees it and what their rights are.

The UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 say that we must tell people this when we collect their personal data. This is called a privacy notice. This document is our full set of privacy notices. Sections 2 to 10 apply to everyone. The notices themselves are in the appendices, one for each group of people:

- Appendix 1: Pupils (written in plain, simple language)
- Appendix 2: Parents and carers, and placing authorities
- Appendix 3: Staff, including temporary and agency staff and contractors who work as staff
- Appendix 4: Governors, trustees and volunteers
- Appendix 5: Job applicants
- Appendix 6: Visitors
- Appendix 7: Suppliers and contractors

A person may fall into more than one group, for example a member of staff who is also a parent. In that case, both notices apply. We give people the notice that applies to them when we first collect their information, for example in the admission pack, the staff handbook, the application pack and the visitor sign-in. All the notices are on our website and available on request, and we will give them in other formats, languages or in easy read where needed.

This document should be read with our Data Protection Policy, which explains how we look after personal data, and with our Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

2.0 WHO WE ARE AND HOW TO CONTACT US

Question	Answer
Data controller	Futures Matter - Northwood, 122 Emily Street, Highgate, Birmingham, B12 0XJ. We decide how and why personal data is used, so we are the 'data controller'. To confirm the registered legal name of the school or company, and add the ICO registration number.
Data Protection Officer (DPO)	Kirsty Chamberlain, Data Protection Officer (DPO), Futures Matter - Northwood, 122 Emily Street, Highgate, Birmingham, B12 0XJ. Email office@futuresmattereducation.co.uk. Phone 0121 835 1360.
Head Teacher	Benjamin Neasom is the Head Teacher and the day to day representative of the data controller.
Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)	The UK regulator for data protection. ico.org.uk. Helpline 0303 123 1113.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

3.0 HOW WE USE PERSONAL DATA AND OUR LEGAL REASONS

We only use personal data when the law lets us. Our legal reasons (called lawful bases) are:

- Contract: we need the data to carry out a contract with the person, for example a parent's placement agreement or a staff member's contract, or to take steps before a contract is made
- Legal obligation: we must do it by law, for example the Independent School Standards, safeguarding rules, health and safety, employment and tax law
- Vital interests: we need to protect someone's life, for example in a medical emergency
- Legitimate interests: it is necessary for our legitimate interests, or those of someone else, and it does not override the person's rights. This includes the 'recognised legitimate interests' listed in law, such as safeguarding and crime prevention
- Consent: the person (or the parent or carer where appropriate) has given clear, freely given consent. This can be withdrawn at any time

We are an independent school and not a public authority, so we do not generally rely on 'public task'.

Some information is more sensitive. This 'special category data' includes health, ethnic origin, religion and information about a person's life that the law protects. We only use it when we also meet one of the extra conditions in the law. These are usually explicit consent, our duties as an employer, vital interests, legal claims, health or social care, or substantial public interest (such as safeguarding children and people at risk, or equality of opportunity). We use information about criminal convictions, such as DBS checks, only where the law allows, for safer recruitment and safeguarding.

Where we collect information on a form or a system, we tell people whether they must give it, or whether it is optional, and what happens if they do not.

4.0 WHO WE SHARE PERSONAL DATA WITH

We do not share personal data unless the law allows it and there is a good reason. We share only what is needed. The main groups we share with are below. Each notice says which apply to that group.

Who	Why, and what we share
Placing local authorities, social workers, the SEN team and virtual schools	To carry out EHC plan reviews and annual reviews, report on progress and attendance, agree funding and meet our duties to the pupil. This includes information about needs, progress, behaviour, attendance, safeguarding and health.

Who	Why, and what we share
Birmingham City Council, including children's services and the MASH, the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) and the Children Missing Education team	To keep children safe, report concerns and allegations, and meet legal duties on children who are missing from education.
The Department for Education (DfE), Ofsted, the Independent Schools Inspectorate or other inspectors	To meet legal duties, such as the school census and inspections. Inspectors can see pupil and staff records.
Health professionals, the NHS, CAMHS and therapists	To support a pupil's health and wellbeing, and in an emergency.
Police and other agencies	To prevent or detect crime, to keep people safe and where the law requires it.
Our case management and learning systems, including CPOMS, and our filtering and monitoring provider, Senso	To record safeguarding and pastoral information securely, and to keep pupils safe online. These companies act on our instructions as data processors. To confirm the full list of systems, such as the MIS, the learning platform, email and cloud storage, and the school photographer.
Our IT support provider, payroll provider, accountants and HR advisers	To provide services to us. We have contracts with them that require them to follow data protection law. To add the names of the IT, payroll, HR and accountancy providers.
Our insurers, legal advisers and professional advisers	To get insurance cover, advice, or to deal with a claim or legal matter.
Other schools and settings	When a pupil moves, we send the pupil's records, including child protection files, securely to the new school or college.
Pension providers, HMRC, the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and the Teaching Regulation Agency	To meet our duties as an employer and for safer recruitment. See Appendix 3 and Appendix 5.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

Data protection law does not stop us sharing information to keep a child safe. Staff must never be put off sharing safeguarding information because of data protection. We send personal data by encrypted email or a secure portal. To confirm that no personal data is transferred outside the UK. If a supplier does this, we only allow it with the safeguards the law requires.

5.0 HOW LONG WE KEEP PERSONAL DATA

We keep personal data for no longer than we need it, and then delete or destroy it securely. We follow the guidance in the Information and Records Management Society (IRMS) toolkit for schools, and our own records retention schedule. The usual periods are below.

Type of record	How long we usually keep it
Pupil file, including the EHC plan and reviews	Until the pupil is 25 years old, or 31 years old for special educational needs files. When a pupil moves to another school, we pass the file on and keep only what the law lets us.
Child protection and safeguarding records	Passed on to the next school. We keep our own copy for the period set out in our Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and the retention schedule.
Accident and incident records, and records of restrictive physical interventions	Until the pupil is 25 years old (for adults, at least 6 years).
Attendance registers and admission registers	At least 3 years from the date of the entry, and admission registers for 6 years or longer.
Staff personnel files	6 years after the person leaves. Some records, such as safeguarding allegations, are kept for longer.
Unsuccessful job applications	6 months after the recruitment decision.
Governor and volunteer records	6 years after they leave.
Visitor sign in records	The current school year plus 6 years.
Financial records	6 years from the end of the financial year.
CCTV recordings (if used)	To confirm: usually 28 to 31 days, unless needed for an investigation.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

The periods above are the usual ones. They need to be checked against the school's retention schedule once it is written.

6.0 YOUR RIGHTS

Everyone whose information we hold has rights under data protection law. These are the right to:

- be told how we use their information (this notice)
- ask for a copy of the information we hold about them (a subject access request)
- ask us to correct information that is wrong or incomplete
- ask us to delete information, in some circumstances
- ask us to restrict how we use their information, in some circumstances
- object to our use of their information where we rely on legitimate interests, and to direct marketing
- withdraw consent at any time, where we rely on consent
- receive their information in a form they can move to someone else, where it applies
- not be subject to decisions made only by a computer that have a significant effect on them

To use a right, or to ask a question, contact the DPO using the details in section 2. A request can be made in any form, but it helps if it is in writing and gives the person's name, contact details and what they want. We reply within one month. We may not be able to give everything, for example where it would risk serious harm to someone, would identify another person, or relates to safeguarding or legal matters. If so, we will explain why.

Pupils' rights. A pupil's personal data belongs to the pupil. Our pupils are aged 11 to 16 and have special educational needs, so we decide each pupil's understanding case by case and we do not decide it by age alone. Where a pupil can understand their rights, we ask for their agreement before giving their information to a parent or carer. Where they cannot, a parent or carer can use the rights for them.

7.0 COMPLAINTS

We take complaints about how we use personal data very seriously. If you are unhappy, please tell us first. Contact the DPO using the details in section 2. We will:

- tell you we have received your complaint within 30 days
- look into it without undue delay, and keep you informed of progress
- tell you the outcome without undue delay

You can also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office at ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint or on 0303 123 1113. You can do this at any time, and you do not have to complain to us first. Complaints about the school that are not about data are dealt with under our Complaints Policy.

8.0 ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND AUTOMATED DECISIONS

We do not use automated decision making or profiling that has a significant effect on pupils, parents, carers or staff. Our filtering and monitoring system (Senso) flags certain online searches and activity on school devices and networks for a member of staff to review. Senso integrates with CPOMS, and image blur and assisted monitoring are enabled, so trained safeguarding staff at Senso review flagged captures before our DSL does. A person looks at every alert and makes any decision.

We do not allow personal or sensitive information to be put into generative AI tools unless the Head Teacher and the DPO have approved it, a data protection impact assessment has been done and these notices have been updated to say so. To confirm: if the school or a supplier uses an AI tool that handles identifiable personal data, for example in a learning platform, add it to section 4 and the relevant appendix before it is used.

9.0 CHANGES TO THESE NOTICES

We review these notices every year, and sooner if the law or what we do changes. The latest version is on our website, and we tell people about important changes. This version is dated September 2026.

11.0 APPENDICES

Appendix 1: Notice for Pupils

Appendix 2: Notice for Parents and Carers

Appendix 3: Notice for Staff

Appendix 4: Notice for Governors and Volunteers

Appendix 5: Notice for Job Applicants

Appendix 6: Notice for Visitors

Appendix 7: Notice for Suppliers and Contractors

APPENDIX 1: NOTICE FOR PUPILS

This notice tells you about the information the school keeps about you. We have tried to use clear and simple words. If you want it read to you, explained, or in a different format, ask any member of staff. You can ask as many questions as you like.

Question	Answer
What is personal information?	It is information about you. For example, your name, your birthday, your address, your photo, how you are getting on at school, and what you need to help you learn and feel safe.
Who looks after your information?	The school looks after it. Our Data Protection Officer is Kirsty Chamberlain. Mr Neasom, the Head Teacher, is also here to help. You can talk to either of them, or to any adult you trust at school.
What information do we keep about you?	Your name, date of birth, address and contact details. Your EHC plan. Your work, tests and reports. Your attendance. Your behaviour and how we help you. Your health and any medicines. What you need to learn and feel safe. Notes about how you are doing and if we are worried about you. Photos. How you use school computers and the internet.
Why do we keep it?	To teach you. To help you with what you find hard. To keep you safe and healthy. To report to the people who are responsible for your education, like your local authority. To follow the law.
Is it private?	Yes. We only share it with people who need it, and only what they need. Sometimes we must share it to keep you safe, even when you do not want us to. If we need to do this, we will try to tell you first, and who we are telling.
Who might we share it with?	Your parents or carers. Your local authority and social worker. Doctors, nurses and therapists. Your next school or college. The government and inspectors, who check that the school is doing a good job. The police, if we have to. The companies who make the computer systems we use.
Do we use your photo?	Only if you and your parent or carer say yes. You can change your mind at any time, and we will take the photo down.
Do we watch what you do on computers?	Yes. School computers and the internet have a safety system. It checks for things that might put you at risk. A person at school looks at any alert. A computer does not decide anything about you on its own.
How long do we keep it?	Until you are 25, or longer for some records. Then we destroy it safely.
What can you do?	You can ask to see your information. You can ask us to fix it if it is wrong. You can ask us not to use it in some ways, like for photos. Tell any adult at school and they will help you. If your parent or carer asks for your information, we will ask you what you think if you are able to say.

Question	Answer
What if you are not happy?	Tell any adult at school, the DPO or Mr Neasom. You can also tell the Information Commissioner's Office. Your parent or carer, or an adult you trust, can help you do this. The website is ico.org.uk.

APPENDIX 2: NOTICE FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

This notice explains how we use personal data about parents and carers, and about pupils. It also applies to local authorities and others who place and fund a pupil. Pupils have their own notice in Appendix 1. Please read it with your child if that is helpful.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect about pupils	Name, date of birth, address, unique pupil number, photo and contact details. EHC plan, needs, assessments, reports and progress. Attendance. Behaviour and records of any physical intervention. Safeguarding and child protection records. Medical information and medication. Information from therapists and professionals. First language and ethnic origin. Free school meal and pupil premium status, where applicable. Previous school records. Photos and videos. Online activity on school systems. Records of incidents and accidents. Information about where the pupil goes when they leave us. To check against the admission form and the systems we actually use.
Information we collect about parents, carers and others	Names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses. Relationship to the pupil and parental responsibility. Information about who may collect the pupil. Emergency contacts. Court orders and legal arrangements that affect the pupil. Records of contact and any concern or complaint. Payment and invoicing details for fees paid by a parent or carer. Photos and video of you at events, where we have your consent.
Where it comes from	From you, from the pupil, from the placing local authority and from the pupil's previous school. Also from health services, social workers, the DfE, and from our own staff's observations and records.
Why we use it	To admit and educate the pupil, and deliver their EHC plan. To support their learning, wellbeing and health. To keep everyone safe, including safeguarding, and the Prevent duty. To look after pupils' health in an emergency. To communicate with families. To report to local authorities, the DfE and inspectors. To check the pupil's progress and the quality of what we do. To manage fees and contracts. To keep the site safe. To carry out our legal duties. To deal with complaints, claims and legal matters.
Our lawful bases	Contract (the placement agreement). Legal obligation (for example the Independent School Standards, safeguarding, health and safety, Equality Act duties, and returns we must make to the DfE and local authorities). Vital interests (for example a medical emergency). Legitimate interests (for example the safe running of the school). Consent (for example for photos and videos, and some trips). For special category data such as health, we rely on the substantial public interest (safeguarding, and support for disability and special educational needs), health and social care, legal claims, vital interests or explicit consent.

Question	Answer
Who we share it with	See section 4. In particular the placing local authority, social workers and the virtual school, health services, other schools, the DfE, inspectors, our systems providers, the police and other agencies where the law allows or requires, and when safeguarding means we must.
Photographs and video	We ask for written consent from you, and we explain to the pupil, before we use a pupil's photo in communications. You can say no or change your mind at any time, and we will delete the image and stop sharing it. We do not put a pupil's full name next to their photo. You may take photos at school events for your own use. Please do not share images of other pupils publicly.
Online safety monitoring	We use Senso to filter and monitor pupils' use of school devices and networks, with image blur and assisted monitoring enabled. Senso integrates with CPOMS. This is a legal duty to keep children safe online. A member of staff reviews alerts.
CCTV	To confirm whether CCTV is used. If so, say where, why and for how long, and that signs are displayed.
If you do not give us information	Some information is needed to enrol a pupil and to carry out the EHC plan, and we may not be able to offer or continue a place without it. We tell you when information is optional, such as photo consent.
How long we keep it	See section 5. The pupil file is kept until the pupil is 25, or 31 for special educational needs records.
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7. You can ask for a copy of the information we hold, and ask us to correct it. For a pupil's information, we decide case by case whether the pupil or the parent or carer should use the rights, as explained in section 6. We also respond to written requests from parents and carers for information about the pupil's education, progress and EHC plan within 15 school days, in line with our Data Protection Policy.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

APPENDIX 3: NOTICE FOR STAFF

This notice applies to everyone who works at the school, whether employed, on a temporary or agency contract, or self-employed. It also covers people who have left. It does not form part of a contract of employment, and we may update it.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect	Name, date of birth, address, telephone, email and emergency contacts. National Insurance number, bank details, tax code and payroll records. Contract, role, pay, pension and benefits. Qualifications, teacher reference number, training and professional records. References and application form. Right to work documents, passport or driving licence, and photo ID. DBS, barred list, prohibition checks and other safer recruitment checks, including checks on overseas conduct where needed. Self-declaration about disqualification where it applies. Records of the single central record. Attendance, leave, sickness and occupational health. Performance, appraisal and supervision records. Disciplinary, grievance and capability records, and any safeguarding allegation. Photos, and CCTV where used. Use of school systems, email and the internet. Driving licence and insurance, where you drive for school. Equality monitoring information, such as ethnicity, disability and religion, where you choose to give it. Health information and any adjustments.
Where it comes from	From you, from previous employers and referees, from the DBS and other agencies, from the Teaching Regulation Agency, from occupational health, from HMRC, and from our own records.
Why we use it	To recruit safely and check that you can work with children. To run payroll, pay tax and National Insurance and administer pensions. To manage your employment, absence, training and performance. To keep our pupils safe, and to meet our safeguarding duties. To keep our site and staff safe, and to manage health and safety. To carry out our duties under employment law, and to monitor equal opportunities. To manage the school's IT, and to keep our systems and pupils safe. To deal with complaints, claims and legal matters. To make reasonable adjustments.
Our lawful bases	Contract (your employment contract). Legal obligation (employment, tax, safeguarding, safer recruitment, Independent School Standards and health and safety law). Legitimate interests (for example running the school, and monitoring system use). Vital interests. Consent, for example for your photo on a website. For special category data, we rely on employment, social security and social protection law, substantial public interest (safeguarding, and equality of opportunity), health or occupational medicine, legal claims, vital interests or explicit consent. We process criminal offence data for safer recruitment and safeguarding where the law allows.

Question	Answer
Who we share it with	HMRC, our payroll provider and our pension provider. The DBS and the Teaching Regulation Agency. Our IT and HR providers. The DfE, Ofsted, inspectors and the local authority. The LADO and other agencies where there is a safeguarding concern or allegation. Occupational health, insurers and professional advisers. Prospective employers who ask for a reference. Our systems providers such as CPOMS and Senso. To add the payroll, pension and HR providers.
Monitoring	We monitor the use of school systems, email, devices and the internet, to keep pupils safe, to keep our systems secure and to make sure they are used in line with our Online Safety and Acceptable Use Policy and Staff Code of Conduct. Senso filtering and monitoring applies to staff as well as pupils on school devices and networks.
If you do not give us information	We need most of this to employ you, to pay you and to meet our legal duties. We may not be able to offer or continue employment without it, and we cannot take on anyone who fails safer recruitment checks.
How long we keep it	See section 5. In general, personnel files are kept for 6 years after you leave. Safeguarding allegations are kept for longer, as set out in our retention schedule and in Keeping Children Safe in Education.
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7. Please also tell us promptly if your details change.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

APPENDIX 4: NOTICE FOR GOVERNORS AND VOLUNTEERS

This notice applies to members of the School Governance Board, trustees, the Proprietor where they act in that role, and volunteers, including people who help on trips and visits.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect	Name, address, telephone, email and date of birth. Emergency contact details. Application, references and skills. Qualifications and professional background. Identity, enhanced DBS and barred list checks where they are needed, and other safer recruitment checks, including a check of any disqualification from governance where it applies. Declarations of business and pecuniary interests and any other interests. Attendance at meetings, training and visits. Photos. Records of any concerns about conduct. Equality monitoring information, if you choose to give it. For volunteers, information about any medical needs, where relevant and given by you.
Where it comes from	From you, from referees, from the DBS and from our own records. Information about governors' roles can also be shared by Companies House or other registers.
Why we use it	To appoint and check people who work with or near children. To run governance and keep a record of who is on the Board and who attended. To keep our pupils safe. To carry out our legal duties and to contact you. To keep a register of interests. To keep you safe at school and on trips. To deal with complaints, claims and legal matters.
Our lawful bases	Legal obligation (safeguarding, safer recruitment, Independent School Standards, and where the school must publish or provide governance information). Legitimate interests (running the school well and transparently). Consent (for example for photos or publishing your details on our website). For special category data we use substantial public interest (safeguarding, equality of opportunity), vital interests, legal claims or explicit consent. We use criminal offence data from DBS checks where the law allows.
Who we share it with	The DBS. The DfE, Ofsted, inspectors and Companies House if required. Our insurers, and our legal and professional advisers. Our website, if you agree to your name and role being published. Our systems providers and other agencies where safeguarding requires.
How long we keep it	See section 5. Usually 6 years after you leave the role.
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7.

APPENDIX 5: NOTICE FOR JOB APPLICANTS

This notice explains how we use your information when you apply to work at the school, in any role, paid or voluntary. If you are appointed, the staff notice in Appendix 3 then applies.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect	Name, address, telephone, email and date of birth. Your application form, CV and covering letter. Employment history, qualifications and training, and the reasons for any gaps. References. Right to work in the UK documents and identity checks. Teacher reference number and Teaching Regulation Agency checks. DBS, barred list and overseas checks. Information about any criminal convictions and cautions, and declarations about disqualification, where the law requires. Notes from interview, tests and any presentation. Information obtained from an online search, which we carry out for shortlisted candidates as part of our safer recruitment checks, as set out in Keeping Children Safe in Education. Information about any disability or adjustments you need for the process, and equal opportunities information if you choose to give it.
Where it comes from	From you, from your referees and past employers, from the DBS, from the Teaching Regulation Agency and other agencies, from public online sources for shortlisted candidates, and from any recruitment agency.
Why we use it	To decide whether to shortlist, interview and appoint you. To check you are suitable to work with children and legally able to work in the UK. To make reasonable adjustments. To keep a record of recruitment, and to deal with any complaint or claim about it.
Our lawful bases	To take steps to enter into a contract, legal obligation (safer recruitment, right to work and Equality Act duties) and legitimate interests (choosing the best candidate). For special category data, we use employment law, substantial public interest (safeguarding and equality of opportunity), and legal claims. We use criminal offence data only where the law allows and for safer recruitment.
Who we share it with	Members of the interview panel and the Board. Our HR and payroll staff or providers. The DBS and other checking bodies. Referees. The Teaching Regulation Agency. Our recruitment systems providers. Inspectors, who can look at our recruitment records. To add the recruitment website or system if one is used.
If you do not give us information	We cannot consider your application without the information we need for safer recruitment and right to work checks.
How long we keep it	If you are not appointed, we keep your application and interview notes for 6 months, then delete them, and we may keep an anonymised record for equal opportunities monitoring. If you are appointed, we keep it as part of your personnel file.

Question	Answer
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

APPENDIX 6: NOTICE FOR VISITORS

This notice applies to everyone who visits the school, including parents and carers, professionals, inspectors, contractors, and people who come to events.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect	Your name, the organisation you come from, who you are visiting and the reason, your car registration if you park on site, and your signing in and out times. Your photo or ID, if we check it, and a record of any DBS check or professional ID that you show us. Information about any medical need or access need you tell us about. Your image on CCTV, if it is used. Your contact details if you are booking an event or tour.
Why we use it	To keep the people in our school safe, and to know who is on site, including for fire and emergency evacuation. To protect pupils, and to check that visitors are suitable to be on site. To keep the site secure. To carry out our legal duties. To contact you, for example about an event, or where we need to give you information.
Our lawful bases	Legal obligation (safeguarding, fire safety and health and safety). Legitimate interests (keeping the site safe and secure). Vital interests (in an emergency). Consent, where we ask for it. For special category data we rely on vital interests, or explicit consent.
Who we share it with	We do not usually share visitor information. We may share it with emergency services in an emergency, with the police or other agencies where the law allows, and with inspectors.
If you do not give us information	We may not be able to let you in, because we must know who is on site.
How long we keep it	See section 5. Usually the current school year plus 6 years. To confirm the sign in system, and whether it is a paper book or a computer system.
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7.

Entries in the table above that say To confirm or Add still need completing.

APPENDIX 7: NOTICE FOR SUPPLIERS AND CONTRACTORS

This notice applies to individuals who provide goods or services to us, including sole traders and the staff of suppliers and contractors that we deal with. It does not cover information about a company that is not about a person.

Question	Answer
Who we are	Futures Matter - Northwood is the data controller. The DPO is Kirsty Chamberlain. Contact details are in section 2.
Information we collect	Names, business addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses. Job title and the organisation. Bank details and invoicing records, for payment. Contracts, quotations and correspondence. Evidence of qualifications, insurance and accreditation, such as Gas Safe registration. DBS checks and identity checks where they are needed because the person will be on site or near pupils. Records of site access, permits to work and health and safety information, such as accidents.
Where it comes from	From you, from your employer, and from public sources and registers.
Why we use it	To choose suppliers, agree and manage contracts, pay invoices and keep accounts. To check that contractors are suitable and safe to work on site, and to keep our pupils and staff safe. To manage health and safety. To meet our legal and financial duties. To deal with disputes, claims and legal matters.
Our lawful bases	Contract, legal obligation (financial, health and safety and safeguarding duties) and legitimate interests (running the school). For criminal offence data from DBS checks we rely on the safeguarding conditions in the law. For special category data, where it applies, we rely on vital interests or legal claims.
Who we share it with	Our accountants and auditors, our bank, HMRC, our insurers and our professional advisers. Our landlord or managing agent, where a contractor needs access to the building. Inspectors and the local authority where required.
How long we keep it	See section 5. Financial records are kept for 6 years from the end of the financial year, and contractor safety records for 6 years or longer where needed.
Your rights and complaints	See sections 6 and 7.
